ALUMNI COLLEGE COMBINES RECREATION AND LEARNING

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana Alumni College, billed as a reunion with a difference, offers a weekend of intellectual stimulus and recreational activities at Lost Trail Resort, Sula, July 16-18.

Applications for the limited number of places left should be made immediately, according to Deanna Whiteside Sheriff, director of University Relations at UM and director of the college since its inception in 1973. She said alums and others interested in attending may obtain information about registration from the UM Alumni Center, 243-5211.

"This, our 10th program, will be an open forum where varied viewpoints converge through informal interaction, lectures and group discussions," Sheriff said. "The college promises participants renewal of mind and spirit in a beautiful natural setting ideally suited for our recreational activities, which include nature walks, horseback rides and a Salmon River float."

Daniel Kemmis, Missoula lawyer and state legislator, will speak at 8 p.m. Friday, July 16, on "power to the People."

UM staff members on the program, which opens at noon Friday and closes at 2 p.m. Sunday, listed with their topics:

Barbara Wright, research professor of microbiology, "Science and Progress"; Louis Hayes, professor of political science, and Carol Hayes, secretary, radio-TV department, "Pakistan Reflections"; John Photiades, associate professor of economics, "The World Economy in the Post-Scarcity Era"; Donald Carey, professor
